General Guidelines

- Proofread the entry several times before sending. We will not be responsible for the spelling of names, cities, or floral details, etc.
- Do not use the state name if the town is in Kentucky. For all other states, use standard postal abbreviations as in IN, TN, etc.
- If a list includes names only (or names and places that are in Kentucky), separate them with commas, but if the list includes items that must be separated by commas within the list (Elizabeth Ellis, sister of the bride), then separate each person's identification with a semicolon. Even if only one item requires a comma, semicolons must be used throughout, unless the item with the comma is placed at the end of the list.
- Separate names and titles if the title comes after the name: Christy Phillips, maid of honor; Elizabeth Ellis, sister of the bride; and Katie Williams, cousin of the bride.
- Place a comma between the day and the year in a date, as well as after the year: The wedding took place on April 14, 2015, at First Methodist Church.
- Use a comma between name and family title like Jr. or Sr., but not before numerical titles like III or IV; John Jacob Smith, Jr. and Preston Scott Thomas III served as ushers.
- Beware of altar (not alter). Also, the word couple is singular; for example, "The couple is at home in Bowling Green." NOT "The couple are at home." Write out numbers one to nine; use numerals for 10 and over.
- When listing dress descriptions for your wedding party please take care that the bridesmaids do not wear the same dress. For example, "Attendants wore sage green gowns with fitted bodices," OR, "Each attendant wore a sage green gown with a fitted bodice." NOT, "Attendants wore a sage green gown with a fitted bodice."

YOCUM & BLACK

EMILY MARIE SUZANNE YOCUM AND Merle Fowler Black were united in marriage on the evening of August 8, 2015, at Grace Episcopal Church in Paducah.

Emily is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Todd Yocum. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Etheridge, Mr. and Attendants to the groom were Will Black, David Black, Jimi Gwinn, Philip Walkley, and Daniel Yocum. The couple chose Fowler's niece, Sasha, as the flower girl. Fowler's nephews, Liam, Dawson, Ford, and Nolan were the ring bearers and "ring security."

Photography was provided by Brad Rankin Studio of Paducah and videography was provided by Kevin Klepeis of Bluegrass Wedding Films. The bride received makeup services from Erin Hendley of f.a.c.e. A reception followed at the Grand Lodge on 5th. Flower and Furbish decorated the reception space with farm tables and tall bronze centerpieces overflowing with fragrant flowers and herbs. Artisan Kitchen created a stunning four tiered wedding cake adorned with fresh flowers, as well as a "Quilt Man" themed groom's cake.

With Paducah being the couple's hometown, it was very important for them to utilize all that this city has to offer. They were absolutely thrilled with the incredible services provided. From the all-inclusive ease of the Grand Lodge on 5th to the meticulous detail of Flower and Furbish in the bridal flowers and reception décor, the high quality businesses of Paducah made Emily and Fowler's wedding day absolutely magical.

Mrs. Bill Reinecke, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Patterson and the late Fred Yocum, Senior. Fowler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Black, Jr. He is the grandson of the late Dr. and Mrs. Merle Fowler and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bill Black, Sr.
